COCKTAIL MENU

NEGRONI

Equal parts gin, campari and Italian sweet vermouth, the Negroni was supposedly created in 1919 by barman Fosco Scarselli at the Caffè Casoni in Florence, when one of his regular customers, the Count Camillo Negroni, asked him to make an Americano, but to replace the soda water with gin. Whether the legend is true or not, the Negroni has evolved into a cult classic, known worldwide as the quintessential Italian “aperitivo” cocktail.
